Witty, sensitive, refreshingly unpredictable contemporary women's fiction!

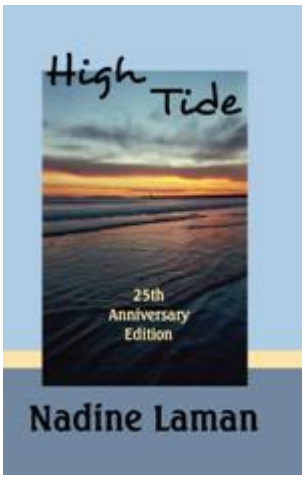

Kathryn's Beach

Kathryn abruptly ends a self-imposed five year exile to return to Los Angeles. Friends and a cryptic letter written by a powerful man push Kathryn to reconcile a deadly mistake from the past. Who says, "You can't go home again?" Sometimes that is exactly what must be done. But, is it worth it?

ISBN: 978-1-947646-16-2

★★★★★ Very highly recommended. Kathryn's Beach clearly documents Nadine Laman as a superb author with the ability to engage and hold the reader's rapt attention from first page to last.

High Tide

Kathryn's judgment is flawed in matters of love. Yet her unwavering passion for working with homeless families makes her failings forgivable. She has the perfect job, the perfect friends, and the perfect lover until a client dies, her lover moves away, she meets her paternal grandfather who tells her the secret of her identity.

★★★★★ High Tide's character development is impeccable and the story line is captivating. I was pulled into the main character and before long, I was thinking and feeling just like her. Nadine has super writing skills and a voice that resonates with every expression she writes. I love her writing style. Irene Watson, Sitting Swing

Storm Surge

Grandfather McKenzie makes a surprise announcement at a staged media event, naming his successor to the McKenzie multibillion-dollar empire. The McKenzie heirs aren't thrilled and they aren't the only ones. Will Kathryn live long enough to expose the family secrets?

ISBN: 978-1-947646-18-6

★★★★★ Nadine Laman's writing is full of descriptive imagery; the story is compelling, and the characters are believable and engaging.

PRESENTS!

THE TRILOGY: Kathryn's Beach, High Tide, Storm Surge

A story of friendship, family, reconciliation, and forgiveness.

Witty, sensitive, refreshingly unpredictable literary women's fiction!

All three deeply emotionally charged novels in one book!

Kathryn experiences the second coming of age where adult problems and successes require adult responses. Emotionally bankrupt Kathryn abruptly ends her self-imposed exile and returns to Los Angeles to reclaim her life. Her friends and a cryptic letter written by a powerful man push Kathryn to reconcile the past.

Kathryn is relieved when a career change lands her working with homeless families and a robust group of Franciscan nuns. Mischief and miracles ensue.

Her estranged grandfather seeks a relationship that causes Kathryn to wonder how much of her life is what it seems. Unexpectedly, Grandfather McKenzie names who will succeed his rule of the McKenzie multibillion-dollar empire at a staged media event. The McKenzie heirs aren't thrilled with the announcement, and they aren't the only ones. The new monarch of the money will quickly learn that money corrupts—and everyone has an agenda. Will Kathryn's courage be enough to expose the family secret?
